A bill was introduced in the legislature on Tuesday providing that the Braintree-Toll bridge, Quincy bridge and Hingham bridge be maintained in the future by Norfolk and Plymouth counties in the proportion of three parts to one part, which would provide for a board of joint county bridge commissioners or trustees. The bill was introduced by Representative E. W. Hunt who is working hard in its favor.

It has cost the town of Weymouth upwards of $11,000, we understand, the last 10 years to keep Quincy and Hingham bridges in repair. They are always out of repair and there is also the ever present danger of a serious accident through some weakness of the structures or oversight in repairs with frequent alarms of possible collapse and damage against the towns. If the maintenance of these bridges can properly be unloaded on the counties it will be a relief to Weymouth and also to Hingham and Braintree. The Quincy bridge draw is far from adequate to the demands to be made upon it and very expensive alterations and repairs must soon be made. As it is now this must fall upon Quincy and Weymouth.

These bridges are used by the general public of Norfolk and Plymouth counties more than by the towns now sustaining the burdens and it would be proper that the state or county should control and maintain them rather than that it should all fall upon the abutting towns and in the case of Braintree its bridge is wholly within its town limits and therefore is maintained entirely by Braintree at quite an expense. We think Mr. Hunt is on the right track and should receive good support in his effort to shift the burdens of these bridges to a broader basis of support.

While speaking of this subject of bridges, if a new bridge is to be built in the near future at Quincy Point, what a splendid opportunity will be given and advantages will be had in the new bridge so as to keep the river above the bridge full all the time like a lake. It could be done easily and aside from the lock itself would not be so tremendously expensive. We wish Mr. Hunt succeeds in this maiden effort in legislation which he intends to be a benefit to his district in the saving of taxes by ridding these towns of the exclusive use of these bridges.

The town seal is being prepared, which is to be submitted by the selection to the town for adoption at the March meeting. The seal is to represent some ideas from the early history of the town. Mr. J. J. Loud, president of the Weymouth Historical Society, furnished the original sketches of those ideas and Mr. Bradford Hawes worked them together and drew the rough sketch of the seal, from which we have had a seal made which we think will prove very pleasing to the people of the town in its artistic beauty and appropriateness. The seal will appear upon the town reports but of course is not official until adopted by the town.

The shooting affair in Kentucky is a sad outcome of intense political rivalries. With Frankfort in a state of insurrection the beautiful Blue-Grass State is not holding out the best of inducements for the further building up of its population or capital.

The tragedies of the Boer-English war continue, and the question now is, Can England win? There are many who begin to doubt if even the power of the British Empire can crush these sharp-shooting Dutch in their fortified fastnesses. England is all powerful on the sea, but on the land that supremacy is wanting and she has to meet her foes on an equal basis.

There seems to be one article, of iron or steel manufacture, which the Dingley or some other tariff does not protect. The steamship Union landed all the coal, which was to be taken on a long trip, which an American manufacturer, France, as with duties and freight added, there is 80 per cent. more in them than if they had been made in this land of coal and iron.

Some legislators are funny men. It is now more than two hundred and sixty years since the legislature of Massachusetts sent Roger Williams from its territory, and Roger Williams, a New England man at the State House who proposes to right the wrong by legislating him back. It might be a good idea to make the member a committee of one to hunt for the departed early settler; he would do less harm while on the hunt than he will in the State house.

The shooting affair in Kentucky is a sad outcome of intense political rivalries. With Frankfort in a state of insurrection the beautiful Blue-Grass State is not holding out the best of inducements for the further building up of its population or capital.

The town seal is being prepared, which is to be submitted by the selection to the town for adoption at the March meeting. The seal is to represent some ideas from the early history of the town. Mr. J. J. Loud, president of the Weymouth Historical Society, furnished the original sketches of those ideas and Mr. Bradford Hawes worked them together and drew the rough sketch of the seal, from which we have had a seal made which we think will prove very pleasing to the people of the town in its artistic beauty and appropriateness. The seal will appear upon the town reports but of course is not official until adopted by the town.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The regular debate, held last Friday afternoon was on the question: Resolved, that the unrestricted employment of women in business is detrimental to the public welfare. Alternative: Miss Raymond, Miss Hall, Morton Hobrook. Negative: Lovitt, Miss Tilden, Miss Davis. The negative side won. Next Friday the Debating Society will elect officers to serve the remainder of the school year.

High School Reception. Class of 1902.

Last Friday evening the sophomore class gave its annual reception at the High school. On account of the boisterous weather the attendance was much smaller than usual, but those who did come were amply repaid by an excellent program and an otherwise pleasant evening. After the usual receiving, the following program was given:

Grand March. Mr. Hunt
Pianoforte. Miss Hinde and Miss Nash
Reading. Miss McQuinn
Solo. Miss Burrell
Two minutes speech (ex tempore).

Two members of each class.

Pianoforte. Misses White, Hunt and Soule
Reading. Miss White
Hot coffee. Miss Nash
Mending contest.

Two boys from each class.

Nail-driving contest.

Two girls from each class.

(Won by Miss Tilden.)
J. Marion Mann of Laselle Seminary was here for a short visit Sunday.

Frank Tucker who was called from Colorado on account of the death of his mother, returned to his western field of labor yesterday.

C. W. Hunt has been holding his own for the past few days and hopes are entertained of his recovery.

The rain for the past week has made a material rise in Weymouth's ponds but the ice harvest is looking extremely doubtful.

A boy came to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund P. White on Lake street last Friday.

Caroline and Fred Whittier of Hingham were spending a few days with their parents, Capt. and Mrs. Nathan Goodspeed.

The program of the concert to be given by Mrs. Jeanette Lovell in the Opera house next Wednesday evening is one of unusual excellence, both as to talent and selections. A rare treat is in store for the people. Mrs. Lovell will be assisted by Miss Lovell, Mr. Thomas E. Clifford, baritone; Miss Blanche Percival, violinist; and Miss Pauline D. Browne, pianist.

A. H. Small of Kingston has moved into the house recently vacated by J. A. Conard.

Mr. B. W. Cushing has been quite ill the past week, but is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Burns were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Constance on Sunday.

DEPTERED AT THE POST OFFICE AT WEYMOUTH, MASS., AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

FRIDAY, FEB. 9, 1900.

Representative J. B. Whelan has introduced a bill in the legislature for the widening and improving of the draw at the Quincy Point bridge. This is a matter of necessity in the near future, and is particularly wanted at a reasonably early date to facilitate the large and growing shipping interests of Weymouth and Braintree. The Fore River Engine Company has located on our river one of the most improved ship-building plants or the country. It is here to stay and to grow. The progress of the great shipping interests for so many years large and costly vessels that will be built here. The shores of our river are well adapted to wharves and shipping, and it is not stretching the imagination too far to picture miles of busy wharves on both sides of the river in the future, furnishing facilities to the many "inland" towns and cities lying back of us for commerce with the outside world. The shipping industry of the country will grow immensely in the future and it must be remembered that we have one of the most important river and water-ways of the Massachusetts coast.

This bill will not be antagonistic to the one mentioned in this column last week as introduced by Representative Hunt, but rather they will be likely to help each other, and our representatives will work together heartily to procure the success of both.

A. W. B.

There is a fair prospect that the movement begun in Brookline to simplify the form of government of large towns may become a general law, but if there is any benefit to be derived from it for Weymouth, we have got to show a population of about 400 more than we did at the last census.

British engineers and officers are called upon to perform a hard test in conducting the South African war. In order to be on an equal footing with the Boers in guns and marksmanship they must be about two miles nearer the enemy than the enemy is to them when they fight.

It is said the Bill of trust or combination is to advance the price of Bibles twenty-five per cent. The advance will not have been in vain if at the same time the world is lifted twenty-five per cent, nearer "peace on earth good will to men."

Commissioner of Pensions Evans is not far from right when he asks Congress to revise the pension laws so they may be more just and equitable and at the same time be better understood.

* * *

According to the bulletin issued on the 7th for committee hearing at the State House, there were at that time 160 measures waiting for committee hearings and legislative action. As there were then eight days more for new business, and often new business comes in under a suspension of rules after the time limit, it is probable the number of measures will be swollen to 190 or more. An usual number of these bills are in the interest of the popular cause, and take in all the same, as Boston politicians win their.

Many of the bills will probably be disposed of with "no legislation necessary" by the committee. It might be a good idea and would materially reduce the number of unimportant bills and resolves introduced if every person was required to give a bond for the successful prosecution of his measure.

A New Town Officer.

Through the instrumentality of the Massachusetts Forestry Association Chapter 239 Act of the General Court of 1892 became a law.

This law makes it obligatory upon every town to elect a tree warden at its annual town meeting. This warden is to have general supervision of all shade and ornamental trees on public ways and unless otherwise provided by park commissioners, all public parks.

Section 2 of the act provides that "towns may appropriate a sum of money not exceeding 50 dollars for each tree warden in the preceding year."

Section 3 provides that "whenever other than a tree warden desires the cutting, or removal in whole or in part of any tree, may apply to the tree warden."

The act is further very stringent as to the use of trees for advertising purposes, with heavy penalties attached for its violation.

Where towns are using the Australian ballot system the officer can be placed on the official ballot if the town shall so decide, but as no towns have taken action as yet in the matter for this year, the officer may be elected by acclamation or independent ballot.

This law is a good one and in this town can not be enforced too soon. There has been too much indiscriminate cutting of trees with no reference to beauty, ornament or usefulness. Again our streets are disfigured by the use of trees as bulletin boards by every merchant vendor of tobacco, hats and other goods, and women who come along with a load of handbills and posters.

As "an thing of beauty is a joy forever," let us see this law enforced and have a joy to ourselves and leave one to posterity.

LADIES ENTERTAIN.

Members of Pilgrim Circle No. 232, C. of F., will have Anniversary.

Miss Mabel, South Weymouth, was the scene of much festivity Wednesday evening, the occasion being the celebration of the sixth anniversary of the birth of Pilgrim Circle No. 232, C. of F. The event was observed with a whist party and dance, which served to make the affair most enjoyable to those present.

Whist was indulged in until ten o'clock, about twenty tables being filled. The gentleman's prize, a handsome pack of cards, was awarded to Henry Nolan. Those present showed twenty-seven pence. Miss Minnie Blanchard received the ladies' prize, a pocket book, and she also had twenty-seven points to her credit.

The floor was then cleared for dancing which was enjoyed until twelve o'clock by about forty couples. Cuff's Orchestra of South Braintree was in attendance and furnished excellent music.

The committee to whom the success of the affair is due was composed of the following members of the court and circle: Oscar Madden, Mrs. Joseph Shannessy, Mrs. Thomas Roche, Mrs. Daniel Desmond, Mrs. Lizzie Leary and Lizzie Moore.

Among the present were:

Mr. and Mrs. James Roche,
Mr. and Mrs. Levi Stetson,

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

By invitation of Miss Pincham Miss Vickery of Weymouth afforded the geology class a very pleasant hour with the microscope. Friday. With the aid of the two microscopes belonging to the school, and of one which Miss Vickery kindly brought with her, the class was able to see a large number of the slides she had prepared for the illustration of geological features, and to learn very much of what the microscope reveals to the geologist, and of the way in which it is used.

THE PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

The column under this title will be given to the people for a free discussion of topics of interest to them. The paper distinctly disclaims all responsibility for the opinions expressed.

That Sign Board.

By an accident Wednesday, the sign board in Washington square was rendered even more unightly than before, and the comundrum now is, how long will it be allowed to remain in this shape?

H. W. C.

What is Its Value?

Those of our citizens who are interested in the welfare of the town, are at present trying to ferret out the use, or value of the fountain, or the affair which is supposed to serve as such, which is installed in Lincoln Square. It has not been in "running" order for some time past, and it is by no means a thing of beauty, but it is a good place to have it in that part of the town. It seems that it could be a good scheme either to put it in a condition to be of some value, or to remove it altogether.

However, the necessity of a fountain in that locality is plainly evident, and the first mentioned plan would appear to be the most laudable.

OF OUR GIGANTIC RED LETTER SALE.

Commencing MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1900, we shall cut prices lower than ever. of goods that we have decided must go has been marked still lower—but it has been done with just one object in view—to make this A FITTING CLIMAX TO THE GRANDEST SALE WE HAVE EVER HELD.

Ginghams

1200 yards of the best Amoskeg Ginghams. They consist of brown, red and green checks. The blue ones are all gone. While they last.

4 3-4c

Cotton

1400 yards more of that six cent bleached Cotton, not over 10 yards to one customer.

4 1-2c

Cotton

1250 yards left of that seven cent Brown Cotton. What there is.

5c

Sheeting

500 yards of 10-4 Brown Sheetings. No need to tell you what it is worth. Remember that it is 2 1-2 yds. wide.

10c

Outing Flannels.

There are a couple of thousand yards of those dark outings. They sold for 7c, 8c, and 9c, per yard.

5c

Plaids

These are those handsome Cotton Scotch Plaids, worth 12 1-2c on the roll; but these are short lengths of 4 to 10 yards. While they last.

6 3-4c

Damask

Just 4 pieces more of that full bleached 58 inch Damask. You would pay 37c for it; but for a very slight imperfection in the weave.

17c

Napkins

25 dozen, all linen, 18 inch. Napkins. They are worth $1.25. Come early for these.

79c

Storm Serge

A pieces of heavy all wool Serge, in black and navy blue. Worth 69c a yard.

35c

French Plaids

These are heavy all wool 44 inch Plaids, dark colors, very suitable for skirts. We thought them cheap at 50c. For the rest of the week,

39c

Dress Goods

Lots of odds and ends in this lot, some marked down from 39c, others 35c and 29c.

25c

Dress Goods

Several pieces still left of those heavy black crepon effect novelties. They must all move out this week. We're 89c yard, now.

49c

Velvet

10 pieces of fine black Silk Velvet. This would be a good fair value at $1.00. Out they go.

59c

Corsets

About 50 dozen left of those 50c "Globe Corsets." We have cut them deep enough this time to make them fairly fly. While they last.

EAST WEYMOUTH.

George W. Young began his ice harvest last Saturday and during the day ran in about a thousand tons of eight-inch ice.

—Postmaster James L. Lincoln is still confined to his home but is getting along well.

—The Ladies' Social Circle connected with the M. E. Church will hold a meeting next Wednesday afternoon and evening with supper at 6 o'clock.

—The annual meeting of the Washington Club for choice of officers and other business will be held next Monday night.

—The horse of Lovell B. Bates took a little trip on his own account from High street to Blythe's stable on Tuesday, and a host of bony chaps were over the road in Blythe's gate. No damage.

—A square was the scene of a lively runaway, or pair of runaways, Saturday noon. John Burns' vegetable team and H. L. Poole's hen team were standing in the square with no attendants to either of them just as the one o'clock car came. Both horses started on a run to see which could make the best time up High street. After a run to the Highgate line, the horses of Mr. Poole gave it up and landed against the fence, while Burns' horse kept on, pursued by E. H. Howe in another team, who captured him after a three-mile race.

—John A. White attended a party given by Miss Margaret White of Boston, last Friday night.

—Photographs at $1.00 a week at Will's.

—Mrs. Charles Harrington has been confined to her home for several days as a result of a severe cold.

—"A rose by any other name would smell as sweet." Overheard in Jackson square on one of our recent very cold mornings as one of the Q. & B. vegetable cars passed. "Tell you what vegetables are a mighty good thing for motor-men."

—Master Henry Thompson is having a serious time with sciatic rheumatism.

—Mrs. Lake Coyle of Quincy has been visiting friends in town this week.

—Ruth E. Bates, has become the happy possessor of a fine new piano.

—Mrs. Albion Lewis visited friends in Crockett, last week.

—Mrs. M. August Pratt, was called to Bridgewater, on account of the severe illness of her sister's husband, Mr. Griffin.

—Sunnie F. Shaw is doing quite a business in the buying and selling of the shoe blacking manufactured by Phillip McLaughlin.

—I think I would go crazy with pain were it not for Chamberlain's Pain Calm," writes Mr. W. H. Stapleton, Hibernian, 25.

—Scarlet fever has appeared in our midst again, though in a light form, Eddie, second son of Prang Farren is the sufferer, but is improving rapidly.

—Ruth E. Bates, has become the happy possessor of a fine new piano.

—Mrs. Albion Lewis visited friends in Crockett, last week.

—The meeting of the Registrars of Voters in Precinct 1 will be held in Engine hall on Thursday evening the 15th instead of Friday evening the 16th on account of the Caucus which has been arranged for the 16th.

—The Old North Literary Club met with Mrs. Robert Steele on Monday evening.

—A regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held with Mrs. Gilbert Hunt on Wednesday afternoon.

—As Walter Sladen was unable to accept the office of superintendents of the Sunday School to which he was recently elected, a special meeting was held on Tuesday evening and Miss Louise E. Humphrey was unanimously elected superintendent and Mrs. Bates was elected assistant superintendent.

—We are glad to see Carl Hunt on the street again after his recent severe illness.

—Charles Stone is gradually gaining strength and will probably be removed to the hospital in Boston during the week.

—Mrs. Charles Bolles has returned from her visit to New York.

—Frank Richards has six hundred dozen hard-boiled eggs nearly ready for hatching.

—The Ladies' Benevolent Society meets this afternoon with Mrs. Murphy. The entertainment committee is hard at work upon an unusually pleasing entertainment to be given the last of this month. All want to be ready for it and not miss it.

—The N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R. Co. have been repairing the buildings around the station, putting the fences in order, cutting down trees, etc. Much regret is expressed over the loss of the fine row of willow trees on the line of the Ellis estate, but the explanation is that the leaves blowing on the track interfered with the running of the trains.

—The high wind last week blew down an apple tree at the corner of East street and Union avenue which tree is known to have been set out one hundred and three years ago. One tree is now left of the one hundred which were set out at that time.

—McClure's Magazine For February.

—The February McClure's opens with a second installment of "The Life of the Master" by the Rev. John Watson (Samuel), illustrated with four of Mr. Linton's brilliant paintings, reproduced in colors of the most delicate shades. A number of beautiful drawings in black and white. In both text and illustrations, the work increases in interest and distinctiveness as it progresses, and more and more decidedly sets a new standard in magazine publication.

—Other noteworthy features of the number are Walter Wellman's account of the extraordinary experiences of his last year's Arctic expedition; Governor Boutwell's reminiscence of the Grant Administration, under which he himself was a member of the Cabinet; Mr. Alixys Ireland's expedition of the relative strength of the great powers in colonial territory, population, and resources; Cleveland Moffet's account of the latest discoveries and speculations regarding the composition of the interior of the earth, followed in conversations with the great cosmopolite expert, Professor John Milner; and Hay Standard Baker's intimate biography and character study of the new Governor of Cuba, General Leonard Wood. All of these articles, except Governor Boutwell's, are fully illustrated.

—A piece of fiction entitled "The Killing of the Mammoth," published in McClure's some months ago, was taken by many readers as a record of fact as much to the surprise as to the regret of the editors. In the present number, Mr. Frederick A. Lucas, of the National Museum, gives us "The Truth about the Mammoth" and the truth, as Mr. Lucas, one of his ample scientific knowledge, presents it, is so extremely interesting even those who were most misled by the invention of the story will find that the ample facts are here made clear.

—The field of the "Times" includes a story of mining life, a packing and love story of the Georgia coast, a story of English prison life, and a railroad story—all original in incident and interestingly illustrated.

FRIDAY, FEB. 16, 1900.

The hearing on the bill concerning the bridges comes up before the committee on counties on the 27th at 10 o'clock. It is hoped that many will be in the interest of this measure which is of large importance to Weymouth, Braintree and Hingham.

It is becoming more and more apparent that we shall have a tough job in the subjugation of the Boers. It is also becoming more apparent that the sympathy of Americans is divided, but with the balance perhaps in favor of the Boers.

The few men are afraid that they won't get any hot, but we have heard of six weeks' siebling in March. Most of us would be happy to get off with an entire winter as mild as this has been but we are likely to get a cold snap and severe snow storms even yet.

In Australia they give the natives mud baths to cure them of fevers. We don't have to go to Australia as a pretty good mud bath can be obtained in crossing Commercial street anywhere between the depot and Washington square. It is understood that a petition is to be put in to the selectmen to have an article in the warrant for the repair of this street, which, with its heavy teaming is in perhaps worse condition than any other street in town.

A. W. B.

Attorney-General Knowlton is no doubt a very nice man and might make a good governor but it is not a little early to nominate him for governor in 1903 as was done at the meeting of the Middlesex Club Wednesday night?

Our friend Mr. Mellen of Worcester is getting anxious again as to the future of Massachusetts senior member of the United States Senate and has repeated his tactic of last year by submitting a resolution endorsing Mr. Hoar. On the face of it the resolution is well founded, but lack of the important mask there is politics and it would be well to let the resolution rest until the other 1900 measures before the Legislature are disposed of.

Evangelist Sanford says he left standing behind the last in base ball because there was not excitement enough in it. He might have tried musing and found what he wanted there.

Choral Society's Concert.

The grand concert at Braintree, on Friday evening of last week, was a decided success. Despite the drizzling rain weather, the church was filled, and the organist, under Mrs. Martha Dana Shepard, leader, sang with precision and musical effect. "The Holy City" was given. The soloists were Miss Margarette Morse, soprano; Mrs. Helen Allen Hunt, contralto; Mr. H. W. Scanlon, tenor; Dr. Geo. B. Rice, baritone. The ladies' quartet consisted of Mrs. Frazier and Miss Lang of Braintree and Mrs. Worcester and Miss Gutterson of Weymouth. A trio was rendered by Mrs. Frazier, Mrs. Worcester and Miss Lang. Each number was heartily applauded.

PLEASANTLY SURPRISED.

Ex-Postmaster Darrow Remembered by Friends.

Ex-Postmaster John F. Darrow was very pleasantly surprised at his home on Washington street, Friday evening last, by a number of friends who called unexpectedly to bid him in observing his thirty-eighth birthday.

Mr. Darrow was away from home when the guests arrived, but a messenger hastened his return, and as he entered the house he was greeted with three cheers by the members of Hose 3 and Hook & Ladder 3 of the Weymouth Fire Department. The surprise of Mr. Darrow was so great that, as he said, he was unable to find words to express his thanks. The company then adjourned to an adjoining room, where Daniel Donovan in well-chosen words, and in behalf of the firemen and others, presented Mr. Darrow with a handsome roll-top desk and chair. Mr. Darrow responded feelingly and then immediately proceeded to establish a reputation as an entertainer, in which direction he succeeded admirably.

The evening was most enjoyable passed with vocal and instrumental music, games and dancing, after which a collation was served. The guests left for their homes at a late hour, after having wished Mr. Darrow many happy returns of the day and congratulated him upon his ability to host.

HURDY GURDY PARTY.

Div. 6, A. O. H. Entertain in Clapp's Hall.

A well attended hurdy gurdy party was held in Clapp's hall Weymouth Friday evening last under the auspices of the members of Div. 6, A. O. H. Music was furnished by the band of the band, Bourne and Peter Gleeson with the hurdy gurdy, and dancing was enjoyed until one o'clock by about fifty couples.

The door was under the direction of Daniel J. Callahan, assisted by the following corps of aids: Dennis Cleary, James McDonald, Thomas Spillane, Peter Burns, Thomas Sheen, Patrick O'Connor, William Burns, Thomas Coyle, Charles O'Connor, and John Daley.

The committee of arrangements was composed of Timothy White, Patrick Coleman, Henry Kelly, Daniel Donovan, Charles O'Connor and William Callahan.

Obituary—Stephen Cain.

No death has occurred in East Weymouth in a long time which was more of a surprise and caused a deeper gloom in the community than that of Stephen Cain which took place at his home on Cain avenue last Saturday night.

Monday he was in his apparent health, devoted the day to Mrs. Cain, who was seriously ill, and visited his daughter, grandmother, who is much of interest in the nature of things, they cannot get. Let your interest in your local paper and pride in your town lead you to add it making the Gazette more bright and witty.

The committee of arrangements was composed of Timothy White, Patrick Coleman, Henry Kelly, Daniel Donovan, Charles O'Connor and William Callahan.

HINTS TO FARMERS.

Following poem which we publish is a sequel to the very popular men's supper given by the men of the M. E. Church, East Weymouth, last week.

Valentine party as held in the vestry.

More details will be given in the following valentine note.

111

Don't misuse the tree agent. Give him up. The honest agent may bless you.

He is a missionary in a good cause.

111

The orchard should be sprayed once before the leaves come out. A heavier spray can be given to the fungi than later, without damage to the tree.

111

Scions cut now and place them in a cool damp cellar, or cover with sand, that they may be ready for use.

111

The mulch from strawberry plants should be removed early if early berries are wanted; but where late ones are desired, keep the mulch on longer. Do not take it all off, simply rake loose so the plants can see through.

111

Let me say right here, it is a well planned notion to seat four people with a little company. To seat six people with a large company is a waste.

111

Well when once seated down, a chance is taken to sit up.

—A banjo, mandolin and guitar recital was given in Lincoln hall Wednesday evening by the Lord Family of Quincy, assisted by Master Theodore Muer, Mr.
Lord's famous boy pupil, and Miss Mary
A. Moran, reader, graduate of New England College of Oratory. An elaborate and interesting program was furnished.

The numbers of the Lord Family were enthusiastically received, while the work of Mr. Lord's pupils reflected much credit upon their instructor.

—Miss Moran's selections were well rendered and met with the approval of the audience. The usher was Miss Kathleen, Miss Agnes Gitterman, Miss
Berne Wright and Miss Josephine Wright.

—Lord Family Recital.

—The members of the Puritan Whist Club were greatly entertained by Miss Kathleen at her home on Sterling street Wednesday evening. The first prize was awarded to Miss E. R. Litchfield, and second by Mrs. Richard Hollings.

—Recital by W. L. Weeks.

—W. L. Weeks, the young impetu-ous and ready young man, highly entertaining at the M. E. Church Wednesday evening. The audience made an unconditional surrender to Mr. Weeks for more than an hour, and gave him a very pleasant evening. Miss Nellie Bowles and May Black contributed several solos.
Mrs. F. A. Sills acting as accompanist.
Master William and Miss Marion Baldwin rendered several selections which added greatly to the evening's enjoyment. There was a large audience in attendance and the affair was a success in every way.

—The Sunday School of the M. E. Church held an enjoyable reception Friday evening last. A large number of the past and present members of the school were present and a delightful evening was passed. J. Sampson was master of ceremonies and an interesting program was furnished and was much enjoyed by the audience. A social hour with refreshments followed. A number of new books were donated for the library.

—Anniversary and Installation.

—The members of the Epworth League connected with the M. E. Church observed their anniversary and installation of officers last Sunday evening. Rev.

Charles Lamb of Maine was in charge of the regular League Devotional meeting at 6:15 and Rev. W. C. Keefer of Iowa designed the address at 7:15. His theme was "The Mission of a Herald." The address was thoughtful and earnest and attended by a large congregation.
An interesting feature of the service was the installation of the officers for both the Senior and Junior Leagues
by the Rev. F. K. Baker.

—Art Club's Exhibition.

—The Boston Art Club's recent exhibition was visited by several art lovers from our vicinity. The sketches of scenery in France, in oils, by Miss Ella W. Sheppard were well hung and were of great interest to all her friends. The portraits by W. W. Churchill, who at one time resided in Weymouth, were keenly noted.
The standing lady in white muslin with long train showed much life and character, the brown eyes following the viewer with a look of regard.

Thomas Smith this week and confined him to his home.

—Miss Mabel McCusker was taken by surprise at her home last Friday evening by a party of young friends. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and discussions a dainty lunch, and in departing
the guests left behind, a fine silk umbrella was a token of regard.

—Mrs. Mary Quinton is convalescing at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Harrington.

—Mrs. J. F. Crohan of Chelsea has been the guest of Mrs. J. F. Dalton, at Ward 2.
